Join us for a Fiduciary and Legislative Update: Fiduciary Delegations and Fiduciary Protective Measures

The Department of Labor views fiduciary training as a critical element of prudent oversight and is increasingly looking for evidence that fiduciary training has been provided during plan audits.

We provide our plan sponsors with ongoing educational webinars presented by Philip C. McKnight with the Stinson Law Firm. After each attended webinar, we will document your completion and provide you with a certificate to be kept in your fiduciary vault. This certificate can be used to show that you have met your duty of prudence.

Join us on July 12, 2022, at 1 PM eastern time for Fiduciary Training.
