SESSIONS

Pre-Conference Bonus Session:

Codes of Conduct and Business Ethics—Jonathan A. Segal

An increasing number of employers are developing Codes of Business and Ethical Conduct (“Code” or “Codes”). They can be very helpful in establishing culture and as evidence of your good faith efforts toward legal compliance. But developing the Code can be deceptively complex. There are decision points on what belongs in the Code, how much detail to include, how to ensure consistency with other documents and agreements, whether and how to reference policies not in the Code, etc.

This session will talk about some (a) common elements in most Codes; (b) decision points for employers to consider; (c) areas outside of employment that should be addressed; and (d) the 10 most common mistakes that we have seen employers make in drafting their Codes. Finally, the program will touch upon how the Code may play out in government investigations in general and recent guidance from the DOJ on criminal investigations.

Employment Law Update—Lynn C. Outwater

What are the latest employment law developments affecting Pennsylvania Employers? Lynn will help us understand the most current federal, state and regulatory developments which Pennsylvania employers need to be aware of to manage more effectively. Practical advice in applying the latest legal developments to the workplace will be discussed.

HR Public Policy Update: A View from Capitol Hill and the Federal Agencies—Lisa K. Horn and Nancy B. Hammer

HR issues continue to dominate the public policy agenda. Proposals to expand civil rights protections, increase “pay equity,” alter the Affordable Health Care Act, and mandate paid leave are all in play on Capitol Hill, and the Administration continues to pursue its policy objectives through executive order and federal agency rulemaking. This interactive session will focus on the potential impact of proposed legislation and regulations at the national level on both employers and employees. Areas of enhanced focus include wage and hour issues, federal contractor rules, equal employment laws, and labor organizing rules. Learn about these issues, their impact on HR professionals, and how you can influence HR public policy through involvement with SHRM’s A-Team.

Labor Law Update—Glenn Spencer

The final year of the Obama administration will bring another batch of labor regulations and NLRB decisions, all of which will impact the way companies do business. With the nation in the midst of a presidential election, it’s also time to start thinking about what new leadership in Washington might mean for employers. This presentation will help you understand the issues facing your company this year, and how to plan for regime change.

State Law Trends (Focus on Pennsylvania)—Jonathan A. Segal

This presentation will provide an overview of state law trends across the country in general, as well as employment bills in Pennsylvania in particular. It will include an interactive discussion of the pros and cons of each bill, not only in terms of its immediate impact, but also in terms of its potential precedent. The importance of grassroots advocacy is stressed, with recommendations to maximize effectiveness.

SPEAKERS

LYNN C. OUTWATER is a Senior Shareholder of Jackson Lewis P.C. and is resident in the Pittsburgh, PA office. Ms. Outwater founded the Pittsburgh office of the firm, as well as the Cincinnati, OH; and Cleveland, OH, offices. She received her undergraduate degree from Fordham University, earned a J.D. degree from Albany Law School and holds a Master of Laws (in Labor Law) from New York University School of Law. Lynn was designated as a “Super Lawyer” in the Labor and Employment Law Practice Area from 2004 to the present. Lynn served on the SHRM Foundation Board of Directors and the HRCI Board of Directors. She was the elected director for SHRM’s Pennsylvania State Council for 2004 and 2005. Lynn has received professional accreditation in the human resources field by achieving the SPHR designation.

GLENN SPENCER is the vice president of the Workforce Freedom Initiative, a national campaign at the U.S. Chamber of Commerce to preserve workplace democracy, prevent adoption of organized labor’s anti-business agenda and rein in abusive union pension fund activism. Before joining the Chamber in July 2007, Glenn spent nearly six years at the U.S. Department of Labor in the Office of the Secretary, serving as the deputy chief of staff and then as chief of staff to Secretary of Labor Elaine L. Chao. Earlier in his career, Glenn was engaged in issue advocacy and grassroots lobbying for Citizens for a Sound Economy in Washington, D.C., and also worked as a senior analyst in the research departments of the National Republican Senatorial Committee and the Republican National Committee. Glenn’s articles have been published in numerous leading newspapers, and he appears on nationally syndicated radio and television news programs. Glenn holds an M.A. in international affairs from The George Washington University.

LISA K. HORN as Director of Congressional Affairs, oversees and directs SHRM’s public policy activities on Capitol Hill on issues important to the HR profession. Lisa also co-directs SHRM’s Workplace Flexibility Initiative and partnership with the Families and Work Institute (FWI). She is responsible for the overall execution of the Society’s partnership with FWI, including outreach efforts to SHRM affiliates, development of products and services for the membership, and coordination with SHRM’s public relations campaign. As a respected source for research and trend data on flexible work environments, Lisa is one of the SHRM’s primary spokespeople on workplace flexibility, regularly interviewed by the media and sought out as a speaker for human resource and business audiences. Since joining SHRM in 2004, Lisa has served as the organization’s chief lobbyist on health care and workplace flexibility public policy issues on Capitol Hill that impact the human resource profession. Prior to joining SHRM, Lisa worked for the U.S. House of Representatives under former Representatives Bill Barrett (R-NE) and Tom Osborne (R-NE). A native Nebraskan, Lisa began her career as a senatorial aide in the Nebraska Legislature, while completing a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln.

Nancy B. Hammer as Senior Government Affairs Policy Counsel, focuses on Regulatory and Judicial Affairs in SHRM’s Government Affairs department. Nancy joined SHRM in January 2006 and is responsible for tracking agency rulemaking and advocating SHRM membership views on regulatory proposals affecting the HR profession. In addition, Nancy tracks court cases that raise critical issues for the HR profession and evaluates whether SHRM should intervene as amicus to ensure the HR viewpoint is considered by the court. Prior to joining SHRM, Nancy served as Director of the International Division and Policy Counsel for the National Center for Missing & Exploited Children and as Legislative Counsel for a U.S. Senator. Nancy received her law degree from Washington University School of Law and her Bachelor of Science degree in Political Science from Nebraska Wesleyan University.

JONATHAN A. SEGAL is a partner at Duane Morris LLP in the Employment, Labor, Benefits and Immigration Practice Group and is the managing principal of the Duane Morris Institute, a provider of programs focused on issues faced by HR professionals, benefits administrators, in-house counsel and other senior managers. Jonathan has been listed in Chambers USA: America’s Leading Lawyers for Business among the top-rated lawyers for labor and employment in Pennsylvania. Jonathan has published more than 100 articles for HR Magazine and is a frequent contributor to Fortune/CNN and Businessweek. Jonathan has provided training to federal and state judges on EEO issues and has provided training on behalf of the EEOC. Jonathan also has provided training on diversity to representatives of various intelligence agencies, including the CIA and the FBI. Jonathan received his B.A., summa cum laude, from the University of Pennsylvania and his J.D., cum laude, from the University of Pennsylvania School of Law.

EXHIBITORS

In addition to the great educational sessions on the agenda, we will also have businesses exhibiting their products and services. This is a terrific way to sample their wares all in one place and get new ideas for employee services and benefits that you can take back to work. These businesses partner with Pennsylvania State Council of SHRM to make our conference more beneficial to you.

Please visit them at the conference and support them throughout the year.

If you would like to be an exhibitor, please contact:
