Millennials are Ready 9:00 a.m.-10:30 a.m.

Adam McCampbell, VisionSpark www.visionsparksearch.com

In this engaging presentation, Adam shows that Millennials are ready to lead in today's workplace and provide strategies that equip organizations to better understand, attract, retain, engage and support this new breed of leadership. Through insightful observations, personal stories and research, organizations will be able to maximize their talent, identify new leaders and position themselves for sustained future growth and bottom line success.

The Power of Prevention...Keeping Your Employees from Becoming Patients 10:50 a.m. -12:20 p.m.

Tom Ernst PT MPT OCS COMT, Board Certified Orthopedic Certified Specialist, Certified Orthopedic and Manual Therapist Partner Oxford @ Work www.oxfordphysicaltherapy.com

This presentation is designed to fundamentally change the way industry views both healthcare and the system in which they find themselves. For far too long, businesses have been at the mercy of a healthcare system and medical process that was created to funnel employees into itself... thus generating revenue from the injured and ill. Participants will develop a common framework and philosophy that shatters this concept and instead, reflects a focus on the power and profit that is derived from a concerted effort and a proven method of prevention and early intervention. Time will be provided at the end for questions and answers!
